

Orphéon Record Station

Diptyque reimagined its Ephemeral Space as a jazz-infused listening room.

A tribute to the spirit of the Orphéon jazz club, once located beside the first Diptyque boutique at 34 Boulevard Saint-Germain, where the Maison's founders would gather.

This immersive experience invites visitors to relive that vibrant era and explore the richness and rhythms of jazz.

Take a seat at one of the self-service turntables, grab a pair of headphones, and let the music tell its story. At the heart of the room, forty carefully curated vinyl records await - an eclectic collection of timeless classics, contemporary blends, and hidden gems.

To continue the journey, discover a selection of album covers and books dedicated to the history of jazz. A playful nod to Orphéon's spirit also comes alive through dedicated games scattered throughout the space.

A musical selection curated and commented by Superfly Records, the renowned Parisian record store.

Alfa Mist - Antiphon - 2019

"A brilliant hip-hop Jazz gem from 2017 by one of the UK's finest talents, Alfa Sekitoleko. An absolutely fantastic listen!"

Alice Coltrane - Ptah the el daoud - 1970

"A spiritual jazz masterpiece from 1970 by the remarkable jazz harpist and wife of John Coltrane, featuring the powerhouse saxophone talents of Pharoah Sanders and Joe Henderson."

Ancient Infinity Orchestra - River Of Light - 2023

"A deep Spiritual Jazz beauty from 2023 on UK's sensational Gondwana imprint."

Bea Benjamin With Dollar Brand - African Songbird - 1976

"A spiritual vocal jazz masterpiece from South Africa, showcasing the elegant vocals of Sathima Bea Benjamin alongside her husband, piano legend Dollar Brand."

Damon Locks Black Monument Ensemble - Where Future Unfolds - 2019

"A sensational 2019 album shining a spotlight on Chicago's underground jazz scene, guided by the creative vision of visual artist Damon Locks."

Donald Byrd - Places and spaces - 1975

"Cult '70s jazz-funk brilliance produced by the legendary Mizell Brothers, packed with timeless classics. Start with 'Wind Parade.'"

Dorothy Ashby - Afro-harping - 1968

"A jazz harpist whose music heavily influenced some early hip-hop classics (think Pete Rock, GZA, and more). Deep, funky, and hugely impactful!"

Dublon - Nectar - 2025

"French Electronic Jazz beauty from 2025, pure bliss!"

Eiji Nakayama - Aya's Samba - 1978

"Magnificent Japanese jazz fusion from the incredible double bassist Eiji Nakayama, with a title track that's truly one of a kind!"

Ezra Collective - Where I'm Meant To Be Black - 2022

"UK funky Afrobeat jazz at its finest from 2022. Check the driving 'No Confusion', one of the genre's top combos!"

Freddie Hubbard - Red clay - 1970

"A hit jazz album by one of the most celebrated trumpet players of all time, recorded for the innovative CTI label. Irresistible melodies throughout."

Hailu Mergia And The Walias - Tche Belew - 1977

"One of the most incredible pieces of music ever made: an Ethio-jazz-funk explosion with the best of 1970s Ethiopian musicians."

Herbie Hancock - Man-child - 1975

"Cult 1975 jazz-funk LP featuring Paul Jackson and Wayne Shorter. A true game-changer in jazz history."

Infinite Spirit Music - Live Without Fear - 1980

"Deep, afro-centered spiritual underground Chicago jazz from 1980. Check out 'Children's Song', a collector's dream."

Isaiah Collier & The Chosen Few - The Almighty - 2024

"Intense spiritual jazz from 2024 by one of today's finest saxophone players."

Jazzbois - Still blunted - 2024

"Funky hip-hop jazz trio from Hungary, 2024. A superb listen with unique arrangements; don't miss 'Pados'."

Joe Henderson - Inner urge - 1966

"Modal jazz masterpiece by one of the most innovative saxophonists of all time, featuring the incredible 'El Barrio'."

John Coltrane - A love supreme - 1965

"John Coltrane's defining masterpiece that launched the spiritual jazz movement, influencing five decades. Arguably the greatest jazz record of all times."

Kamasi Washington - Fearless Movement - 2024

"The latest album by LA saxophone superstar, blending intense spiritual vibes with hip-hop elements - truly unique!"

Kazumi Watanabe - Endless Way - 1975

"Classic album by Japan's world-famous guitar player, featuring top musicians from the golden era of Japanese jazz. Check out the beautiful 'On the Horizon.'"

Lee Morgan - Search For The New Land - 1966

"Landmark 1966 album by trumpet legend, recently rediscovered following the Netflix documentary, 'I Called Him Morgan'. Check out the beautiful title track."

Lonnie Liston Smith & The Cosmic Echoes - Expansions - 1975

"1970s jazz-funk album with a title track that became an anthem in the UK's Rare Groove scene."

Makaya McCraven - In the moment - 2015

"One of today's leading jazz figures, Makaya is the son of drummer Stephen McCraven. On this album, he brings together the cream of the Chicago scene for one of the finest records released in recent years."

Mankunku Quartet - Yakhal' Inkomo - 1968

"One of the most remarkable works from South Africa's vibrant 1960s jazz scene."

Masaru Imada - Green caterpillar - 1975

"Mind-blowing Japanese jazz fusion from 1975. Check out 'A Green Caterpillar' and 'Spanish Flower', true classics."

Max Roach - We Insist! Max Roach's Freedom Now Suite - 1961

"Early political jazz manifesto from Max Roach featuring wife Abbey Lincoln, with the anthem 'Freedom Day'."

Max Roach - Members Don't Git Weary - 1968

"Deep spiritual jazz masterpiece from 1968, including 'Abstractions' and 'Effi', featuring the mighty Gary Bartz on saxophone."

Miles Davis - Kind of blue - 1959

"Cult 1962 jazz LP featuring John Coltrane, Bill Evans, and Cannonball Adderley, with classics 'So What' and 'All Blues'."

Minoru Muraoka - Bamboo - 1970

"Japanese jazz holy grail, a unique fusion of folk and funky jazz, widely celebrated by DJs like Sjadown."

Moses Yoofee Trio - Ocean - 2023

"Confidential 2023 release gaining attention. Funky hip-hop jazz of the highest caliber!"

Nat Birchall - Mysticism Of Sound - 2020

"2020 album by a leading figure in the UK deep jazz revival. An absolute superb listen!"

Noel McGhie & Space Spies - Same - 1975

"Spiritual jazz/fusion album recorded in Paris with an all-star lineup from Martinique, Jamaica, and Japan. Check out 'Trapeze'."

Pharoah Sanders - Pharoah - 1977

"Pharoah Sanders most revered album, a work of sheer beauty!"

Sadao Watanabe - Sadao Meets Brazilian Friends - 1968

"Splendid 1968 Bossa jazz LP by Japan's most famous saxophonist, featuring compositions by João Gilberto and João Donato."

Sinsuke Fujieda Group - Fukushima - 2025

"2025's hottest jazz album. Stunning saxophone/violin interplay, an absolute beauty."

St Germain - Tourist - 2000

"Cult French Electronic Jazz classic from 2000 with one the genre's anthem 'Rose Rouge'."

Sun Ra - Lanquidity - 1978

"Sun Ra's genius covered four decades starting in the mid 50s. 'Lanquidity' is arguably one of his best albums with a modernity that has stood the test of time."

Sven Wunder - Daybreak - 2025

"New Swedish Jazz-Funk sensation, cinematic Jazz of sheer beauty with exquisite string arrangements."

Wendell Harrison & Phillip Ranelin - A Message From The Tribe - 1974

"A cult classic on Detroit's legendary Tribe imprint, essential to the jazz scene in America. Run by and for the local community, the label carried the powerful message: 'Music is the healing force of the Universe.'"

Yazz Ahmed - A Paradise In The Hold - 2025

"Latest album by British female trumpet player. A beauty."

*Discover the Orphéon playlist by scanning this QR code.
A selection curated by Superfly Records.*

DIPTYQUE
PARIS